The US war on drugs is to blame not only for the US having a shameful incarceration rate, but for establishing many governments throughout the world.

My wife takes a special trip up there to shop several times a year.