vetprofen is a non-steroidal, anti-inflammatory drug (nsaid) for dogs that inhibits cyclooxygenase, a hormone responsible for pain and inflammation liam went to visit the same doctor that tim said sold him drugs with hidden cameras in his bag i can not wait to read much more from you today the harvesting of food and other materials from the sea is still a largely unregulated industry when compared to land-based environmental exploitation